

Liverpool Philharmonic Music Room Visual Guide

Welcome to Liverpool Philharmonic Music Room

We are a concert hall that presents music, comedy, film and family events. This is what the building looks like from the outside on Sugnall Street.

When you arrive, you will be greeted by our Stewards, who will be wearing a black shirt with a teal lanyard that says 'Liverpool Philharmonic' on the card. Like the one you see here.

Our stewards will scan your ticket before you go inside the building.

When you are inside, you will first see our bar where you can buy food and drink.

This space can be loud and busy with other visitors.

You will find our accessible toilets through this door.

All the toilets are single access cubicles and there are two accessible toilets, and one baby change cubicle.

The Main Space

When you look to the left side from the bar, you will see the main space in the Music Room.

If you have booked a seat for the event, you can speak to one of our stewards who will help you find your seat.

Before and during the concert

The ensemble might start playing their instruments before the concert so they can warm up. The concert will then start, and you can enjoy the show.

Some of the audience might begin to clap and you can join in if you want.

Take a break

If during the session, you feel that you might need to take some time out, just let a steward know that you would like to leave and they will be able to let you know where the quiet spaces are.

You can return to the main space when you feel ready.

If you would like to bring ear defenders, or small, quiet sensory items you are very welcome to.

Please note that we don't have any at Liverpool Philharmonic Music Room that you can borrow.

After the concert

At the end of the concert, we will go back into the Music Room bar area and exit through the same door that you came in.

There is no rush to leave – you can take your time.

We hope you enjoyed your visit to the Music Room!
